

I am on the Wisconsin State do not call list and ever since I was added to the list my life has become a lot more peaceful. I encourage this type of list for those that know about it. This is a great tool that should be for the entire nation.